

James W. Bradford
101 Savoy Circle
Nashville, Tn 37205
615 343 5705

Employment History

Dean & Ralph Owen Professor for the Practice of Management	2005 - Present
Acting Dean Owen Graduate School of Management	2004-2005
Associate Dean of Corporate Relations Clinical Professor of Management Owen Graduate School of Management Former teaching experience includes, Emory & Henry College and instructor, ETSU	2002-2004
President & CEO United Glass Corporation National fabricator of flat glass, 18 primary glass processing centers	1999 -2001
President & CEO AFG Industries, Inc. Responsible for Americas activities of 3 divisions, $1.3 billion sales, 68 plants Co-world wide responsibility for Asahi Glass Co. flat glass mfg. and fabrication operations. Joint responsibility for world wide flat glass industry with representative of Asahi Glass Co. and Glaverbel, S.A.	1992-1999
VP & General Counsel AFG Industries, Inc. Responsible for all legal and compliance activities of AFG North American activities, including 1933 & 1934 Securities Acts, NYSE, EEOC, NLRB, etc.	1984-1992
Private Law Practice Partner HS&D, primary areas of practice: M&A, Corporate and Employment law	1973-1984

Education

1969	B.A.	University of Florida (Political Science Major)
1973	J.D.	Vanderbilt University School of Law
1997		Advanced Management Program, Harvard Business School

Board Representation

former

AFG Industries, Inc.

Gemtron Corporation

Redman Industries, Inc.

National Manufacturers Association

Barter Theatre

Tennessee Nature Conservancy

Southern Appalachian Highland Conservancy

Civic Activities

Chair, FBSUMC Leadership Council

Chair, FBSUMC Finance Committee

Chairman, Kingsport Board of Education

Barter Theater Board of Trustees

Tennessee Nature Conservancy, Board of Trustees